

Understanding and Enhancing the Care Experiences of Black Women Along the Breast Cancer Journey

Gayathri Naganathan, Aisha Lofters, Frances Wright, Danielle Rodin, Leila Springer, Juliet Daniel, Andrea Covelli

Project Aims:

1 To understand the lived experiences of Black women across Ontario in the context of how race and sociocultural factors shape their breast cancer journey

Created by Mahmure Alp from Noun Project

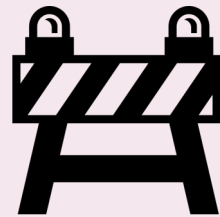

Created by Adam Zubin from Noun Project

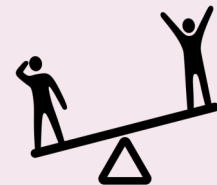

Created by corpus delicti from Noun Project

2 To identify barriers, challenges and inequities experienced by Black Canadian women when undergoing diagnosis, treatment and prevention of breast cancer

Created by b faris from Noun Project

Created by Lucas Helle from Noun Project

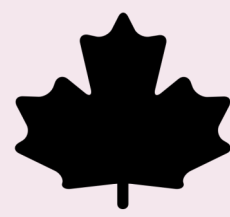

Created by Jellycons from Noun Project

3 To develop actionable goals and pan-Canadian strategies addressing biases through prioritizing barriers and challenges identified through the lived experience of Black women undergoing breast cancer care

Created by Lars Meiertobrens from Noun Project

Created by Emily Keller from Noun Project

Created by Luis Prado from Noun Project

Research Design:

Phase 1: Narrative Inquiry

Created by Gan Khoon Lay from Noun Project

Study Population

Created by Sophie Lee from Noun Project

Created by Yohann Berger from Noun Project

Black

Created by designector from Noun Project

Caribbean Region

Recruitment

- Community Partner
- Self-referral
- Healthcare Provider

Created by ProSymbols from Noun Project

Created by jokokerto from Noun Project

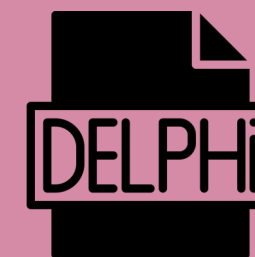

Created by dallas from Noun Project

Phase 2: Knowledge Translation

Created by Justin Blake from Noun Project

Virtual focus-groups with pan-Canadian stakeholders

Created by Ben Davis from Noun Project

Modified Delphi approach identified barriers/challenges/inequities in care will be prioritized

Created by Studio 365 from Noun Project

Develop actionable strategies with national key stakeholders